FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Change to flight schedule for 32nd Military Police Company

New Time: Friday, July 23 at 2 p.m.

The Wisconsin Army National Guard learned Tuesday afternoon that the return flight for soldiers of the 32nd Military Police Company will be delayed until Friday afternoon, July 23.

The unit's 150 soldiers are now expected to land at Volk Field Air National base at around 2:00 p.m. Friday, where they will be met by senior National Guard officials and the University of Wisconsin Marching Band. As many as 600 family members, friends and fellow Guard soldiers are also expected to be present at Volk Field.

Following an initial reunion with their families and a brief official "welcome home," the soldiers will travel to nearby Fort McCoy to begin about five days of demobilization processing.

The 32nd MP Company was ordered to active duty March 15, 2003 and deployed to Southwest Asia in early May. They were originally expected home in early May 2004, but in mid-April the company's soldiers were among 6,000 Guard and Reserve troops extended beyond the one year "boots on the ground" policy then in effect. The unit's long-awaited return began about a week ago when the soldiers moved from Iraq to Kuwait.

While in Iraq, the MP soldiers provided security in and around Baghdad, and also helped train the new civilian Iraqi police force. The unit suffered more injuries from hostile action than any Wisconsin National Guard unit since World War II. Twenty-three Purple Heart medals were awarded to 32nd Military Police Company soldiers, including one Purple Heart awarded to Spc. Michelle Witmer, New Berlin, who was the first female soldier killed in action in the 367-year nationwide history of the National Guard.

Following redeployment of the 32nd MP Company, the Wisconsin Guard will still have about 1,270 soldiers and airmen on active duty. Of those, approximately 230 are deployed overseas with more than 700 others who are eventually bound for overseas missions. Another 800 Wisconsin Army National Guard soldiers remain on alert for possible mobilization.
